

Claire Reinelt, Ph.D.
Evaluation and Research Director
Leadership Learning Community
Project of The Tides Center

Claire is a founding member of the Leadership Learning Community, and serves as convener of the Evaluation Learning Circle and the Boston Learning Circle. Before joining LLC, Claire worked as a senior consultant with Development Guild and as an independent consultant. She has partnered with numerous foundations to evaluate and support their leadership development efforts, including the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, the Echoing Green Foundation, The California Wellness Foundation, the Packard Foundation, the Gates Foundation, The Rhode Island Foundation, and the Schott Foundation. Her particular areas of expertise are designing and implementing evaluations of multiple leadership programs that are part of a foundation's strategic initiative; enhancing the capacity of diverse stakeholders to capture, integrate, and utilize lessons learned from leadership program evaluations; facilitating learning circles; and conducting scans of leadership efforts. One recent scan she completed is an assessment of how 55 leadership programs evaluate their outcomes and impacts. This report, Evaluating Outcomes and Impacts: A Scan of 55 Leadership Programs is available on the LLC website. Dr. Reinelt has over 15 years of experience working in the nonprofit sector as a teacher, trainer, project director, and consultant. She has a Ph.D. in Sociology from Brandeis University and an M.A. in Anthropology from University of Texas, Austin.
